

Chapter 5 I, YOU, SHE, IT

Words that are used in place of naming words are called pronouns.

When a pronoun is used to refer to one naming words, it is called a singular pronoun. I, you, he, she and it are singular pronouns.

A Circle the pronoun in these sentences.

(p.g.no.18)

1. enjoy talking to your friend.
2. plays basketball daily.
3. bought a lovely dress yesterday.
4. are naughty.
5. is going to Agra next week.
6. need to hurry up.
7. is going to watch a film.
8. The dog looks angry. is barking.

B Fill in the blanks with I, you, he, or it.

1. Look at my new school bag! It has many pockets.
2. Lata was excited. She quickly opened her birthday gifts.
3. This is my pet cat. It loves chasing rats.
4. My name is Kiran. I study in class 1.
5. Anil is cleaning the kitchen. He keeps his house clean.
6. Hi, Kamal! You look really nice today.

C Look at the pictures and write the sentences correctly.

(p.g.no.19)

1. This is Supriya. He is a dancer.

Ans: This is Supriya. She is a dancer.

2. This is a rabbit. You have a short tail.

Ans: This is a rabbit. It have a short tail.

3. This is Peter. It is my cousin.

Ans: This is Peter. He is my cousin.

4. I love my grandma. He is very kind.

Ans: I love my grandma. She is very kind.

5. This is Ashok. It plays football every day.

Ans: This is Ashok. He plays football every day.

6. This is my pet dog. You is friendly.

Ans: This is my pet dog. It is friendly.

7. This is Yusuf. She is wearing woolen clothes.

Ans: This is Yusuf. He is wearing woolen clothes.

8. This is my school. He has big classrooms.

Ans: This is my school. It has big classrooms.